DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-3,5-26, 34-38,40-42,45 and 46 were examined.
2. Claims 4, 27-33,39,43-44, and 47-50 were cancelled.

Section I: Non-Final Rejection

Claim Objections

3. Claims 11 and 12 are objected to because of the following informalities: for consistency, the Office strongly suggests replacing "An operating system" with "One or more computer-readable media".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

4. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

5. Claims 40-42,45 and 46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because these claims are considered to be software per se, as such they are abstract and thus non-statutory subject matter.

Section II: Reasons for Allowance

6. Claims 1-3,5-26, 34-38 were examined and allowed.
7. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance are considered allowable since when reading the claims in light of the specification, as per MPEP § 2111.01, In re Sneed, 710 F.2d 1544, 1548, 218 USPQ 385 (Fed. Cir. 1983). While the invention discloses calling a native kernel of a native operating system, the non-native kernel calls comprising non-native instructions not operable on the native operating system, (pg. 8, lines 22-23) the native kernel being part of the native operating system and having access to hardware through one or more device drivers and hardware interfaces native to the native kernel none of the references of record alone or in combination disclose or suggest the combination of limitations specified in the independent claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance".

Section III: Response to Arguments

8. Rejection is withdrawn.
